ABOUT US!

Ever since its first issue, way back in 1872, The Shetland Times has faithfully reported on island affairs and is Shetland’s longest standing weekly newspaper. Today, The Shetland Times prints and publishes much of the literature available in the islands, and these titles, along with almost every other Shetland book in print can be found in The Shetland Times Bookshop – the biggest in Shetland and better stocked than most bookshops of comparable size on the Mainland. Able to give your order personal service, we have professional staff, and are members of the Booksellers Association.

Our mail order service has been established for many years. In this list you will find details of Shetland, Orkney, Scottish and Viking books, together with a selection of children’s books. The listings are in alphabetical order, by author, to make it easier for you to find titles by a particular author. A reference number is shown at the end of each description. If the book you are looking for is not on the list it may well be in stock anyway. If not, then we will try to get it for you. As part of our service we receive regular bibliographic updates on CD-ROM which enables us to offer a first class service on customers’ special orders. Simply fill in the order form with the book you require and let us search and order for you.

Shetlanders have a reputation for hospitality and we make every effort to ensure your visit is an enjoyable one. Our bookshop is well known to visitors to Shetland and many continue to use our services long after their trip is over. Here are a few comments from our visitors’ book & internet customers:

“It was very difficult to choose from such a selection”, Ms. Tocher, Stavanger, Norway.

“Love this shop! And the postal service”, Mary Veazey, Luton, England.

“Good as any bookshop in Lincoln! Must leave or bankrupt !”, Kelley, Lincoln.

“Thank you so much for making the culture of Shetland available to those of us who have a keen interest but are unable to travel there at present”, internet customer, Vermont, USA.

“This shop is an example for everybody – Ggrreeaatt”, Serge Beuchillot, Paris.

“A visit to Shetland isn’t complete if you don’t visit the Shetland Times Bookshop”, Sue Cockayne, Derbyshire.

“I came, I saw, I bought books”, Jarrell Thompson, Zambia

Victorians 60 Degrees North: The Story of the Edmondstons and Saxbys of Shetland
Johnston, J. Laughton £32.00
This is the saga of five Edmondston brothers of Shetland and their families, from 18th to the early 20th century. 84624

A Dream of Silver
Johnston, J. Laughton £8.99
Laughton Johnston is better known for his writings on natural history and nature conservation. A Dream of Silver is his first novel. Due to the decline in his health, an old man is forced to move from his retirement cottage on Shetland to live at the Edinburgh home of his 10-year-old grandson. As a way of making contact with a child he hardly knows, and who hardly knows him, the old man begins to tell the boy the story of his own childhood and of his encounter with the works of the two giants of Scottish literature of the 19th century. It is a moral and physical journey; the narratives of the grandfather and grandson, and that of an old man’s childhood, closely interweaving. 83671

Naturalist’s Shetland, A
Johnston, J. Laughton £45.00
Shetland’s ecology is explained with key samples used to illustrate the nature and effect of its isolation and the overlap of northern and southern, British, Scandinavian and Icelandic species and communities. 36031

A History of Scatsta Airfield (Revisited) Shetland
Mayes, Terry £3.00
First published in 1996 this third reprint is a direct result of the jet age coming to Scatsta Airport which is Shetland’s first passenger jet service albeit to the Oil Industry. RAF SCATSTA, located in the north of mainland Shetland was the most northerly RAF airfield in the British Isles. The most northerly RAF establishment in the UK was at Skaw on the island of Unst where a radar station was set up. Scatsta was constructed to meet an urgent operational requirement to provide a base for fighter cover facilities for nearby RAF Sullom Voe a major Catalina and Sunderland flying boat base and its accommodation camp at Graven. It also provided a satellite airfield to Shetland’s only other wartime RAF airfield at Sumburgh located on the southern tip of Shetland. 53
